Kelly skates into the spotlight

Kelly Wilson, 19, from Essex, is one of the top young skateboarders in the UK and she often skates in international competitions. In this interview, we ask her about her sport and her interests.

Where do you go (you / go) skateboarding?

There's a skate park near my home in Essex and I usually 1 (go) there.

How often 2 (you / practise)?

I 3 (practise) four or five times a week but I 4 (not / practise) at the weekend. On Saturdays I always 5 (skate) in a competition and I 6 (not / go) to the skate park on Sundays. That's my free day!

7 (you / go) skateboarding with friends?

No, I 8. My sister Hannah sometimes 9 (come) with me. Hannah's only 12 years old but she's a brilliant skateboarder! She's really amazing!

10 (Hannah / skate) in competitions, too?

Yes, she 11, but only once or twice a year. Mum and dad 12 (not / think) competitions are a good idea at the moment. She's very young.

13 (your parents / watch) you skate?

Yes, they 14. Dad always 15 (travel) with me to competitions, but Mum 16 (not / come) very often. She usually 17 (work) at the weekend.

What 18 (you / do) in your free time?

The usual things. I 19 (listen) to music and I 20 (phone) my friends.
